Billy and Mandy Bobbitt have been involved with Beagles for many years. Mandy grew up foxhunting with the Huntingdon Valley Foxhounds in Pennsylvania. She was joint master with Paul Cronin and huntsman for the Chillybrook Beagles in VA which were started in 1972 and recognized by the National Beagle Club in 1976. After a divorce, she continued to teach school and started the Bedlam Beagles as master and huntsman. (Bedlam seemed a suitable name for her life with two sons, a pack of Beagles, and teaching!) She started with some of the Chillybrook Beagles and some pack gifts or rejects plus various Beagles of field trial breeding as well as some show breeding. As always, some fit in and some did not, but she enjoyed the process. The Bedlam Beagles were recognized in 1977.

Billy has had beagles and coonhounds since he was in Law School at Washington and Lee University in Lexington Virginia. In 1978, with Mandy's encouragement, he started the Glenbarr Beagles which he has maintained as Master and Huntsman since that date. He served as President of the National Beagle Club for ten years and is currently on the Board of Directors of the NBC and is in charge of the Beagle Pack Trials held at Institute Farm in Aldie, Virginia in the fall and spring.

When Billy and Mandy were married in 1988 they decided to keep both packs separate for the welfare of their marriage and the packs. Mandy finished a number of Bedlam pack Beagles to their AKC championship, even one which was Best of Variety at Westminster and another which was twice Best of Opposite Sex there. She has been on the Board for the National Beagle Club for many years and has served as Assistant Secretary and served on the Education Committee. Mandy was the National Beagle Clubs AKC representative for more than 20 years. She has judged Beagles at the West of England Hound Show in 2011 as well as the Sweepstakes classes at the National Beagle Club Specialty in Wisconsin in 2014.

Over the years, the Bedlam Beagles have been successful in the field at the NBC pack trials as well as at Bryn Mawr. The Glenbarr Beagles are less show oriented than the Bedlam, but they have won many ribbons at the Bryn Mawr Hound Show and frequently place highly at the NBC Pack Trials, and won the 8 couple class at the Spring Trials in 2015, the highest scored pack in 2014 and many ribbons at the Spring and Fall Trials.
ABOUT THE JULIAN MARSHALL AWARD

A living individual is selected for this annual honor based upon his or her lifetime contribution to hunting and hounds. Julian M. Marshall served as President of the Bryn Mawr Hound Show Association from 1983 though 1987, and as Honorary President from 1988 through 1999. After Mr. Marshall’s death, his family inaugurated the award, which was presented at the Hound Show Association Luncheon by Mr. Marshall’s widow, Mrs. Tenny Marshall and is now presented by his son, Mr. John Marshall.

Past recipients of the award have been:

The Greatest Threat to the Future of Hunting with Hounds and to Sporting Dog Kennels: “Puppy Mills”

As the 2011 hound show gets underway, sporting dog owners across the country are again bracing themselves for continuing fight over the future of hunting with hounds. The U.S. Sportsmen’s Alliance (USA), a national sportsmen’s rights organization, is working with sporting dog enthusiasts all around the country to protect the future of hunting with hounds and sporting dog kennels. In order to be successful we need your help.

Never before have sporting dog owners, hobby breeders and kennels faced a nationwide onslaught of this magnitude on their way of life. But this is the reality today. The threat stems from concern over the treatment of dogs in some large scale commercial breeding operations. The exposure of abuses in some of these types of operations around the country has spawned a new media term to identify these kennels, the “puppy mill.” A media blitz and massive education campaign over the last few years by animal advocates, including animal rights organizations, continued many opinion leaders that action must be taken. The sympathizers all have one thing in common: a love of dogs. As a result of this coordinated campaign, new regulations and legislation have been introduced across the country. The threat was expanded in 2010 with more than 50 bills introduced in 3 states. Fortunately, not a single devastating bill was enacted into law. As we head into 2011 the battle surely continues to intensify.

USA - An Umbrella to Coordinate the Fight

The USA Sporting Dog Defense Coalition works throughout the country to unify sporting dog enthusiasts to defeat legislation and regulations that would negatively impact those who hunt with dogs. It has had many past successes including stopping bans on hunting with hounds in California and animal fighting bills that defined fighting as “any animal combat, chase, kill, or attempt to injure, harass, injure, kill or attempt to injure another animal.” Like these examples, USA's mission is to prevent “puppy mill” legislation or regulations from being enacted that would unjustly penalize and negatively impact the law abiding sporting dog community. The secret to USA’s success is its ability to build strong coalitions of affected people and focus their collective energies on a well planned and flexible campaign. In Pennsylvania, USA worked closely with Masters of Foxhounds, the Pennsylvania Federation of Sportsmen’s Clubs, Pennsylvania Beagle Gun Dog Association and many local packs and hunts including the Cheshire Hunt, Holly Hill Beagles, Radnor Hunt and Skytop French Hounds.

What’s the Problem With Cracking Down on “Puppy Mills”? As in Pennsylvania, animal advocates across the country are pushing legislation aimed at implementing dramatic changes for all dog kennels under the guise of a crack down on “puppy mills.” In doing so, they have proposed new laws that fall to make the necessary distinctions between types of kennels and uses of dogs. Instead, they lump private sporting dog kennels with those with abusive, large-scale commercial breeding operations. This failure to differentiate between types of kennels and uses of dogs would prove devastating to the sporting dog community. The regulations proposed in Pennsylvania are costly, unnecessary, and in some cases would put healthy dogs in kennels, but are often wholly unnecessary for private sporting dog kennels and hobby breeders. All Sportingmen and sporting dog owners support the eradication of abusive breeding operations. Unfortunately, the new laws that are being proposed would go far beyond that goal and would destroy legitimate kennels in the process. If we don’t act now, animal advocates will rush these measures through in quick order.

Do These Bills Apply to All Kennels? Proponents of these measures claim that they only apply to commercial breeders. In most states this simply is not the case. The legislation goes far beyond those commercial breeding operations and catches up those whose dogs are not used for hunting. In other states, the language is confusing and unclear at best and could easily be interpreted to apply to sporting dogs. In addition to the many “puppy mill” Bills that deal with dog breeding, many states have seen legislation introduced to regulate, or outright ban, the raising and keeping of dogs outdoors. Moreover some states are even attempting to mandate that all adult dogs be spayed or neutered. This new wave of attacks is just as dangerous as the “puppy mill” Bills.

Where to Draw the Line? It’s clear that this effort is more about an animal rights agenda than it is about just stamping out a few bad breeders, but how and where would we draw the line between commercial entities and private sporting dog kennels? Many of the bills that have already been introduced set outright caps on the number of dogs you can own or possess. This misses the idea that just because you own or possess an arbitrary number of dogs does not mean you are a commercial entity.

A commercial kennel has dogs which are kept primarily for the purposes of commerce. A private kennel keeps dogs for sporting purposes and may only occasionally sell a dog. The law should treat each fairly, but it must recognize the difference.

Sportsmen are the Key. Because these attacks are a coordinated national campaign being waged by some groups who either oppose hunting or have previously attacked hunting with hounds, we must be sure to address all of the details. We cannot afford to take the word of state officials or legislators as many of them may not fully understand how the provisions included in these bills will affect sporting dog kennels or who may mistakenly believe we are exempt. In Pennsylvania, it took nearly 18 months of a grassroots pressure campaign contacting legislators, educating the media, recruiting fellow sportsmen, negotiating with the Department of Agriculture, lawmakers and the governor’s office for our coalition to secure the necessary changes to protect sporting dog kennels. Now we’ve seen these types of bills spread like wildfire across the country. It’s imperative that USA, its partners and sporting dog owners from all across the country have a seat at the table to prevent these measures from being implemented.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION:
The vital characteristics of any Foxhound are: QUALITY, neither coarse nor over-refined, proper STRUCTURE, resulting in balance; and ACTIVITY, based on movement. Careful observation of the initial stride often provides the clue.

HEAD
The skull is of moderate length and breadth. The bite must be level with jaw, neither under nor overshot. Set and length of ears may vary with type. Eyes will vary in shade from dark brown to pale amber.

Defects: The only basic fault is an uneven bite. Color of eyes is not considered to be material.

NECK AND BODY
It is agreeable for the neck to rise gracefully from the shoulders, but a short neck by itself is not necessarily a fault. Seen from the front, the chest is of moderate width in proportion to size. The rib cage should be deep and extending well back. The back is of moderate length with the spine set between cushions of muscle and above all a strong loin with pin-bones set wide. The top line of the back may either be straight from the wither to base of stern or slightly wheeled over the loin. The stern is a natural extension of the backbone, gently curved upward or straight.

Defects: A throat which shows folds of skin to a degree termed “throatiness”. Shallow ribs or barrel ribs which make for a herring-gutted appearance. A narrow loin and protruding backbone (knobby back), constituting roach-back, are serious faults for propulsion. A falling away of the topline, giving a chopped-off look, is a fault which is not to be confused with a strong wheel-back. The stern must not curve over the base, nor should there be a cup-hook appearance at the end. This fault is a concession to fashion, but it is extremely hereditary and unsightly.

FOREQUARTERS
Shoulders are the essential feature of the forequarters. They are long and sloping, permitting freedom of action and a long, straight stride. The key to the shoulder is the elbow, positioned parallel to the body and not turning out or, worse, turned in. The forelegs are straight with bone and tissue in proportion to body size. The pasterns are of moderate length, either straight or slightly back at the knee. The forefeet may vary in shape with type of foxhound. The essential is that pads and nails bear weight evenly, thereby denoting balance. The toes are strong and well-arched.

STANDARD for the FOXHOUND
Defects: Straight shoulders and elbows turned out or in are faults, and can be assessed from the side, by standing behind the hound, and by observing crooked or constricted forequarters movement. An elbow slightly out at the stand (particularly with immature or young hounds) which straightens with movement is not a fault. Conversely, a foreleg which looks correct at the stand may reveal an over-wide chest in movement. A very narrow chest with forelegs close under the body can also result in restricted and crooked movement. Big, fleshy or splayed feet are faults. Uneven wearing toenails denote imbalance. Knuckling over from the knee generally emanates from a straight shoulder and is a serious fault.

HINDQUARTERS
Hips and thighs, particularly the second thigh, are strong and well-muscled. Hocks are set wide and well let down. The hindquarters may convey the impression of great propelling power. The hindfeet, like the forefeet, may vary in shape with the type of foxhound, the pads and nails bearing weight evenly, the toes strong and well-arched.

Defects: Weak second thighs, hocks which turn in (cow hocks) or lack angulation.

COAT
The coat should be dense and hard and will vary with the type of foxhound. Rough and broken coats are permissible.

COLOR
Any good hound color.

SIZE
The essential criterion is proportion, hence balance. Dogs are ideally not under 22” or over 25” at the withers, and bitches are not under 21” or over 24” at the withers; however, both dogs and bitches may vary slightly from these guidelines in order to suit the particular condition of their hunting country.

MOVEMENT
One must be able to discern movement which is active, well-coordinated and rhythmic; action must be straight and parallel without dishing or paddling.

TEMPERAMENT
The foxhound is of tractable nature, capable of being taught the quarry to pursue and the riot to avoid.
All English Foxhound entries are limited to hounds registered in The Foxhound Kennel Stud Book or The Foxhound Kennel Stud Book of America. This rule does not apply to unentered hounds eligible for registration. English Hounds with an outcross of no more than 20% will be permitted to show in the English Ring.

Hounds may be shown on lead or loose at the option of the exhibitor but with the concurrence of the judge, provided however, that hounds shown loose are not to interfere with the showing of other hounds. Any hound so interfering shall be placed on a lead at the order of the Steward.

AMERICAN FOXHOUNDS

SUBSTITUTE AMERICAN HOUNDS

American Ring Sponsored by Mrs. Cindy S. Bedwell in honor of Mr. John White, for 50 years of service as huntsman for Brandywine Hounds

HEAD

SKULL. The skull should be fairly long, slightly domed at occiput, with cranium full and not too broad.

DEFECTS. A very flat or broad skull, narrow across the top or excess of dome.

EARS. Set on moderately low, long, reaching when drawn out nearly, if not quite, to the tip of the nose; fine in texture, and hang in a roll, with the forward edge lying close to the cheek, tapering to a well-defined tip, setting close to the head, with almost entire absence of erectile power.

DEFECTS. Short, flat round, set on high or with a tendency to rise above the point of origin.

EYES. Large, set well apart, with a tendency to roundness, mellow, gentle and pleading in expression; brown or hazel in color, free from drooping eyelids.

DEFECTS. Sharp and terrier-like or prominent and protruding or yellow eyes.

MUZZLE. Muzzle of fair length, straight and square cut, coming to a stop just below the eyes. Lip reasonably long, having a tendency to make the muzzle square in appearance.

DEFECTS. Long and snipey, cut away decidedly below the eyes, dished, very short. Parrot, undershot mouth or Roman Nose.

BODY

NECK AND THROAT. Neck rising free and light from the shoulders, strong in substance yet not heavy, of medium length. The throat clean and free from excessive folds of skin.

DEFECTS. A thick, short neck carried on a line with the top of the shoulders and overemphasized or throat showing folds of skin to a large degree termed “throatiness”.

FORE LEGS AND FEET

FORE LEGS. Straight and with adequate bone and tissue. Pasterns of moderate length, sloping slightly backward to assure springiness and grace in action.

DEFECTS. Out at elbow, knees knuckled over forward or bent backward. Fore legs crooked. Pasterns extremely long, short or straight.

FEET. Pads full and hard. Toes well arched, close and correct, giving to the foot the appearance of neatness and strength. Strong nails.

DEFECTS. Long, sprawling, separated, open, turned in or out, cat like
HIPS, THIGHs, HIND LEGS AND FEET

Strong and muscular, giving abundance of propelling power. Stifles strong and well let down. Hocks firm, symmetrical, and moderately sprung. Feet close and firm.

DEFECTS. Cow hocked or straight hocks. Lack of muscle and propelling power, open feet.

STERN (TAIL)

Set moderately high, well developed, strong and with good carriage with slight curve.

DEFECTS. A long stern, tea-pot curve, and inclined forward from the root. Rat tail.

COAT

A hard, thick coat of medium length, lying close to the body.

DEFECTS. A short thin coat of soft quality.

HEIGHT

Dog hounds twenty-two to twenty-five Inches, Bitch hounds twenty-one to twenty-four inches, measured at the point of withers, standing In a natural position with feet well under. A twenty-three inch hound with a twenty-eight inch girth is considered good.

COLOR

Any color. Preference tri-color, black and tan, blue or red tick.

GENERAL CONDITIONS

A hound which is blind, deaf, castrated, spayed, or which has been changed in appearance by artificial means, or a male which does not have two normal testicles normally located in the scrotum, may not compete at any show and will be disqualified. A hound will not be considered to have been changed by artificial means because of removal of dew claws.

When a Judge finds any of these conditions in any hound he is Judging, he shall disqualify the hound marking his book “Disqualified” and stating the reason.

A hound that is lame at any show may not compete and shall not receive any award at that show. It shall be the judge’s responsibility to determine whether a hound is lame. If in the judge’s opinion a hound in the ring is lame, he shall withhold all awards from such hound and shall excuse it from the ring. A hound so excused shall not be counted as having competed.

A hound that is lame at any show may not compete and shall not receive any award at that show. It shall be the judge’s responsibility to determine whether a hound is lame. If in the judge’s opinion a hound in the ring is lame, he shall withhold all awards from such hound and shall excuse it from the ring. A hound so excused shall not be counted as having competed. When a judge excuses a hound from the ring for lameness, he shall mark his book “Excused-lame.”

No hound shall be eligible to compete at any show and no hound shall receive any award at any show, in the event the natural color or shade of natural color or natural markings of the hound have been altered or changed by the use of any substance, whether such substance may have been used for cleaning purposes or for any other reason, Such cleaning substances are to be removed before the hound enters the ring.

If, in the judge’s opinion, any substance has been used to alter or change the natural color or shade of natural color or natural markings of a hound, then, in such event, the Judge shall withhold any and all awards from such hound, and the judge shall make a note In the judge’s book giving his reason for withholding such award.

All Penn-Marydel Foxhound entries are limited to hounds accepted by the keeper of the Stud Book of the Master of Foxhounds Association or the keeper of the Stud Book of Penn-Marydel Foxhounds, Inc., subject to conditions below.

Penn-Marydel hounds from MFHA recognized or registered hunts entered in 2008 or later must be accepted or eligible for acceptance as such in the MFHA Stud Book. In the case of hounds not contained in the MFHA stud book by virtue of ownership but otherwise eligible to compete, the Penn-Marydel Foxhounds, Inc. studbook may be used and PMD Registration Number must be shown on entry form. Pre-2008 entry not included in the MFHA PMD Stud Book may compete in the Penn-Marydel division as classified in the Penn-Marydel Foxhounds, Inc. Stud Book (i.e. Listed or Registered) and PMD Registration Number must be shown on entry form. Bryn Mawr Hound Show Champions of Record may compete as classified when they garnered the championship.

Only Listed Hounds may be shown in Classes 301-309. Registered Hounds only in Classes 310-326. Registered or Listed Hounds may be shown in class 327 (Pack). Entries are limited to not more than five in unentered and three in entered classes.

All Beagle entries are limited to hounds from packs registered with the National Beagle Club or to hounds that have been placed in licensed or sanctioned American Kennel Club Field Trials.

Entries are limited to not more than two (2) in entered classes and three (3) in unentered classes. A class will be held even if there is no more than one entry, and a ribbon should be awarded the entry on its merit. No 13” hounds may be shown in 15” classes except as Get or Produce (classes 5 and 15). No 15” hounds may be shown in 13” classes except as Get or Produce (classes 10 and 20). The NBC Measurement Book shall be the official standard for Hound measurement at the show.

No hound having won a championship or grand championship at the Bryn Mawr Hound Show shall be eligible to be shown in the ENTERED, DOG or BITCH classes at this show, but is eligible for the STALLION, BROOD BITCH and Champion DOG or BITCH classes of its division. Entries must be made for the classes prior to closing date.

The winning of the Bred by Exhibitor and BEST BROOD BITCH in the show classes does not provide eligibility for GRAND CHAMPION BEAGLE class.

Packs will be shown in livery and without couplings.

In classes where post entries are permitted, each post entry must be a hound named in the catalogue for a different class or as a substitute hound.

171  Skycastle TROMPETTE 2009  (Skycastle Riddle 2006-Their Sabine des Ajoncs de l’Aulne 2007+)
1. Every entry shall constitute an agreement that the person making it shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the Bryn Mawr Hound Show Committee. The decision of the Committee on all questions arising therefrom shall be final. In the case of differences between Prize List and Show Catalogue, the Catalogue supersedes. The Committee, at its sole discretion, reserves the right to refuse any entry.

2. All hounds entered for competition must be in their kennels in the show yard by one-half hour before the commencement of judging. All divisions shall begin judging promptly at 8:30 a.m. Kennels must be vacated by noon on the day following the show. Transportation is not available.

3. A master by making entries in this show thereby certifies that the entries shown in the unentered classes are hounds whelped after the first of December two years prior to the current year which are fully intended to be entered hounds at the proper time, and that hounds in entered classes are hunted in a regular and systematic manner. All unentered hounds must be listed under the name of the hunt that is showing them.

4. The entry fee is $10.00 per entry, except the pack class, which is $20.00, however total entry fees are capped at $150.00 per hunt. There is no entrance fee for substitute hounds nor is there an entrance fee for the junior handler classes. The kennel fee is $25.00 per kennel. Entry and kennel fees are due and payable at the time of entry submission.

5. Each exhibiting pack will be allowed a maximum of five substitute hounds, provided that each substitute hound has been so named as a possible substitute on the substitute entry form received by the Entry Secretary one hour prior to the start of Judging. This form can be mailed or e-mailed in advance and changed on the show day. The Entry Secretary must be advised of any class substitution changes at least 30 minutes prior to the start of judging.

6. There shall be no post entries except in specified classes. Such post entries must be entirely made up of hounds entered in another class in the catalogue or listed as substitute hounds as per 5 above and must be named to the Entry Secretary at least 15 minutes prior to the start of judging.

7. Entries are limited to not more than five in unentered classes and three in entered classes (except as noted in Beagle and Basset divisions). All hounds must be named with date of entry for entered hounds, and name and date of entry for sire and dam, as they appear in the stud books of the Masters of Foxhounds Association, Penn-Marydel Foxhounds Inc. or the National Beagle Club.

8. In all rings, hounds may be shown on lead or loose at the option of the exhibitor but with the concurrence of the judge, provided however, that hounds shown loose are not to interfere with the showing of other hounds. Any hound so interfering shall be placed on a lead at the order of the Steward.

9. Entered foxhounds must have been accepted by the Keeper of the Stud Book of the Master of Foxhounds Association or, for the Penn-Marydel division, the Keeper of the Stud Book of Penn-Marydel Foxhounds, Inc., subject to conditions detailed in the Penn-Marydel section. Unentered foxhounds must be eligible for acceptance by same. In the English ring, foxhounds drafted from other hunts can be shown in all classes. In all other foxhound rings not excepted by the committee, foxhounds drafted from other hunts, with the exception of unentered hounds, can be shown only in the stallion hound or brood bitch classes. Drafted foxhounds from all rings, however, may participate in the Pack Class. Note that in the case of hunts which have totally disbanded and dispersed their hounds to other hunts, those hounds will not be considered draft hounds for the purposes of showing at the Bryn Mawr Hound Show.

10. Only winners of the unentered, entered, stallion and brood bitch classes are eligible for the champion class. If a winner of a first prize in a class at a prior show of the current year enters the same class at this show that is canceled for lack of competition, it is eligible to compete in the champion class for winners of that canceled class. A hound that has won a championship at a previous Bryn Mawr Hound Show may not compete in the entered dog or entered bitch class of its division. Said hound may compete in the stallion, brood bitch, stallion with get, brood bitch with produce and the dog or bitch champion class of its division. Entries must be made for these classes prior to closing date. (With exceptions as agreed between the Penn-Marydel division and the Committee. Also excepted as noted in the Beagle and Basset Divisions.) A hound that is placed second in a class that qualifies the winner for a champion class may compete for the reserve champion.

11. In the event of only one exhibiting pack entering a class, ribbons and trophies may be awarded but no points will be awarded towards the huntsman’s prize. Unless there are three or more entries from two exhibiting packs in a class, no points will be awarded towards the huntsman’s prize to the second place exhibitors, but ribbons may be awarded.

12. In the pack class, the individual hounds need not be named. In the stallion with get, bitch with produce and two couple hounds classes, the hounds need not be named. In all except the pack class, however, the hounds must be entered in another class in the catalogue or be listed as substitute hounds in the catalogue.

13. Hunt personnel shall wear kennel coats except in pack class where hunt livery is required. Hunt personnel showing packs are limited to a huntsman and one whipper-in.

15. Huntsman cash prizes of one hundred dollars ($100.00) first and fifty dollars ($50.00) for second shall be given to the huntsman of each hound division winning the most “points” in Competition. No “points” will be awarded to hounds removed from the judging area prior to being excused by the judge.
